

CURRICULUM VITAE

MARINA SERVITZOGLOU

Dr. Marina Servitzoglou completed her studies at the Medical Department of Health Sciences School, University of Patras (09/1994) and her PhD in Psychosocial Oncology at the Medical School, University of Athens (12/2004).

She holds a Degree in Pedagogical Studies (Higher School of Pedagogical and Technological Education, 2000) and two Postgraduate Degrees, the Postgraduate Diploma in Pediatric Palliative Care (University of Cardiff, 07/2007), and the Diplôme InterUniversitaire d' Oncologie Pédiatrique (Université Paris-Sud, 10/2009).

She received her Subspecialty Certification in Pediatrics in 2004 and the Specialist Title in Clinical Pharmacology in 2024. She was trained in the field of Pediatric Hematology / Oncology in significant, renown Specialized Centers in Great Britain and France (07/2004 – 04/2008).

She has long clinical experience as Pediatric Oncologist, and she has also been working in the field of Palliative Care for children, adolescents and young adults with malignant and other life-threatening diseases.

She has been actively participating in the clinical training of undergraduate students and residents, concurrently teaching in Postgraduate Programs at the University of Athens (Medicine, Nursing and Dentistry School) and the University of Peloponnese (Departments of Nursing and Speech and Language Therapy).

She is member of Greek and International Scientific Societies, such as the Hellenic Society of Pediatric Hematology / Oncology, the Hellenic Society of Pediatric Palliative Care (founding member), the International Society of Pediatric Oncology, SIOPE, ICPCN, CCLG etc.

Her research activity focuses on hematological malignancies and solid tumors. She has published articles in National and International scientific journals, conference proceedings with a peer-reviewed system and book chapters.